It is indeed a pleasure the second issue of volume IV ; through our very well recognized journal NAVJYOT . It also gives me a great satisfaction that we are receiving a very positive and tremendous response with regard to publication of research paper through our journal NAVJYOT. NAVJYOT in fact has a mission and vision of encouraging young social scientist both student as well as teachers to research in their respective areas and also to pen down and publish the finding so that their research would reach across our fraternity as well as society

Through this volume our expert have selected the paper from different areas related to social science and languages Commerce. It carries papers related to Political Science, History, Sociology, Commerce, Economics, Social Work, Sociology, Hindi, Sanskrit , Library and Information Science. Most of the authors are new and are publishing articles as our mission is to motivate and encourage them to do so. hence there is a growing trend and motivation towards publishing research paper through our journal. This volume also reflect that we have dealt with issues likes democracy , women, education, humanism, social work, children, sugar industries and the contribution of India stalwarts likes Narendra Modi along with certain literary reflection

Overall it gives me a great me a happiness and contentment in giving our fraternity and readers another volume and also that we are progressing toward our mission through this volume. We look forward to the same kind of positive response from our another and readers.
